

Binfield Heath Parish Neighbourhood Plan

Update 3: January 2022

Well, whatever next . . .

. . . we need your help again!

Hello everyone. This is to keep you up to date on where we are with the Binfield Heath Neighbourhood Plan. Once adopted by South Oxfordshire District Council, the Plan can help to influence planning matters in the parish.

In the last newsletter we asked you to send us photographs of your favourite views and places around the parish to help us produce a Landscape Character Assessment. We now have 140 photographs to sift through!

But we need your help again.

Another part of the neighbourhood plan involves producing a history of the parish, which is well under way. But we also want to identify houses, barns and other buildings such as Keep's Well, above, that are of interest and which give Binfield Heath its distinctive character. Please send us your suggestions. We would love to hear your views.

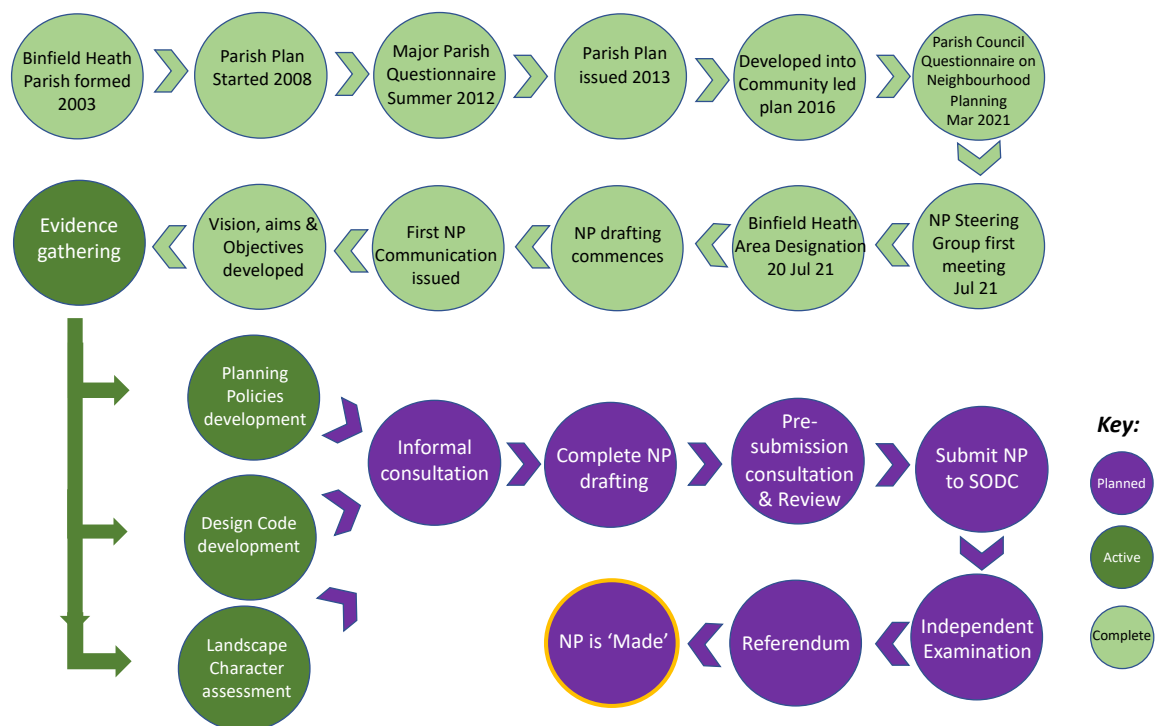

Plus, does your house have a story to tell? Is it of historical interest? Was it once a shop? Are there any fascinating facts, surprising secrets or even ghostly goings-on that you can share with us?

Please let us know by emailing us at:

BinfieldHeathNeighbourhoodPlan@gmail.com

Such stories will enrich the history of our parish, which will form part of a public presentation and informal consultation on the neighbourhood plan which we hope to hold in the Spring.

Meanwhile, here is a chart showing where we are with the plan so far:
